The Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) is continuing the Project Development & Environment (PD&E) study regarding the future of the Anna Maria Island Bridge on State Road 64 in Manatee County, Florida. FDOT would like to know if your opinion about the future of the bridge has remained the same or changed since the survey dated April 2008. Please review the bridge alternatives displayed at this workshop, complete the following survey (one per household) and return it to FDOT by the date indicated at the bottom of the page. Answers provided on this survey do not represent your endorsement of the project.
